Employee Handbook

Updated: July 2019

Welcome to the Phalen Leadership Academy Network

Phalen Leadership Academy Network (PLA) is very excited to have you as a member of our team! The mission of the Phalen Leadership Academy Network is to prepare scholars to meet high academic and social standards, and to thrive as leaders at home, in their communities and in the world.

The purpose of this handbook is to provide guidance to PLA staff regarding PLA operations, policies, rules and the employee/employer relationship. This handbook is not intended to be comprehensive or to address all possible applications of, or exceptions to, the general policies and procedures of the school network. If you have questions regarding the contents of this handbook or the applicability of any policies contained in the handbook, please contact the school principal.

Nothing in this handbook, either expressed or implied confers any right to remain employed by PLA. This handbook does not constitute or represent a contract of employment, nor does it guarantee any fixed terms or conditions of employment. Your employment is at will and you may be terminated with or without cause and without prior notice. You may also resign for any reason at any time. PLA requires a two-week notice for a voluntary separation, unless otherwise indicated.

The policies, procedures, rules and benefits contained in this handbook may be modified or discontinued at any time. We will try to notify employees of any changes as they occur.

PLA Culture and Language Statement

Our scholars come from and live in global communities. Their neighborhoods are racially, linguistically, and religiously diverse. As a caretaker of this diverse population, PLA has an obligation to build a teaching staff that promotes and creates an environment of inclusion to maximize the potential for success of our scholars.

A single instance of discourteous or culturally insensitive remarks or behavior, regardless of whether intended or unintended, can damage our team building efforts. We must refrain from using divisive language such as: your kids or our kids. We must also stop labeling or using words such as: “stop acting like animals or thugs”, when describing scholars or their relatives.

In order to build a safe and academically centered learning environment here at PLA, it is imperative that our employees function cohesively as a team. Collectively, we must strive to attain a certain degree of cultural competence, so, that we are better equipped to teach our scholars how to function in a global community. We should view all people as unique individuals and realize that their experience, beliefs, values, and language affect their interactions with others and the larger community. We need to be culturally sensitive. Cultural sensitivity is the awareness and recognition of other practices and cultures.

To accomplish this goal, we encourage open discussions with co-workers or PLA management to address erroneous assumptions and preconceived notions regarding our culturally diverse scholar population. However, it is important to note that all staff members must remain respectful and courteous to each other at all times during these conversations. These conversations should be nonjudgmental, and should raise the awareness of cultural differences and help individuals recognize the humanity of people who are different from them.

A culturally sensitive staffer is respectful, knows how to effectively communicate with others, and is empathetic to a culture that is unlike his/her own. A culturally sensitive staffer is more aware of how a team member, scholar or parent of a scholar with a different background may view the staffer's words and/or behavior. The ultimate goal is to establish a learning environment, where everyone feels safe, and empowered. When employees feel safe and comfortable around their coworkers, it's easier for them to work together toward a common goal.

General Conduct Guidelines

PLA expects every employee to adhere to the highest standards of job performance and personal conduct, including in interactions with co-workers and outside business contacts. All PLA employees are expected to adhere to the following guidelines:

Attendance and Punctuality

Regular attendance and punctuality are essential to creating an effective and harmonious academic and work environment. Employees are expected to report to work as scheduled, on time and prepared to start work.

Employees are also expected to remain at work for their entire work schedule. Late arrival, early departure, or other absences from scheduled hours are disruptive and must be avoided.

If an employee is unable to report to work when scheduled, the employee must notify his or her supervisor no later than 1 hour prior to the start of his or her scheduled shift. If unable to provide notice one hour prior to the start of the employee's scheduled shift, he or she must contact the supervisor as soon as feasible.

If the employee fails to provide notice, has insufficient leave time to cover the absence, or fails to appear after a leave request has been denied will be considered an unexcused absence. Excessive unexcused absences may result in discipline up to and including termination.

An employee absent three (3) or more days because of an injury or illness must obtain a physician's release to return to work. The physician's release must be sent to Human Resources at humanresources@phalenacademies.org upon return.

Any employee who fails to call or report to work for three consecutive days is considered to have abandoned their job.

Paid Time Off (“PTO”) Policy

Provided that an employee is in good standing with PLA, the employee will receive 10 hours of PTO on the first of each month from September to April, not to exceed 80 hours (PTO), which can be used for personal days or sick days. PTO does not roll over to the next year. Requests for PTO should be submitted through your Building Leader(s). See the appendix for full policy.

Payroll is processed on a bi-weekly basis with payroll deposit information being made available on Friday. In the rare occasion the Federal Reserve is closed on a pay date Friday, deposits will be made at the latest time prior to the pay date.

Performance Evaluation Process

PLA recognizes the importance of employee evaluations for the purpose of improving individual job performance. The evaluation process is intended to improve and reinforce the skills, attitudes, and abilities that enable individual employees to be effective in achieving assigned job goals and to identify and remediate weaknesses which prevent an employee from achieving the goals of his/her assigned duties.

The PLA Coaching Cycle is an online platform that serves as a tool for conducting classroom observations and providing teachers with regular feedback and support for their instructional practices and professional growth. Teachers receive feedback based on these observations on a regular basis. Teachers and Building Leaders will have access to data insights and improvement opportunities. There are resource toolboxes contained within the Coaching Cycle that can provide support for instruction, classroom management and goal setting.

Written performance evaluations are conducted and shared with employees annually. Circumstances throughout the year may warrant additional reviews of performance.

Performance indicators included in the performance evaluation along with other employment related factors are considered in determining individual salary changes, including merit, if any, annually.

Professional Development

It is the expectation of PLA that each staff member will continue to grow in his/her particular position within the Network. For this reason, professional development and training is encouraged amongst all staff members. Whenever financially feasible, the network will support job-related professional development activities. Professional development requests must be submitted on the Professional Conference Request Application at least four weeks prior to the event. The request application must be submitted to the staff member's immediate supervisor and forwarded to the Director of Human Resources.

At times, staff members attending professional development may be asked to sign an agreement that if the employee chooses to leave the network within a certain period of time following the training, the employee may be responsible for reimbursing the network for all or a portion of the training costs.

It is the responsibility of the employee to forward copies of certifications or training completed to the Director of Human Resources in order to keep accurate records of professional development completed. Employees must, however, consult with their doctor(s) about the medications' effect on their fitness for duty and ability to work safely and promptly disclose any work restrictions to their supervisor. Employees should not, however, disclose underlying medical conditions unless directed to do so. Moreover, the legal use of prescribed drugs is permitted on the job only if it does not impair an employee's ability to perform the essential functions of the job effectively and in a safe manner that does not endanger scholars or other individuals in the workplace.

Equal Employment Opportunity

PLA provides equal employment opportunities (EEO) to all employees and applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, marital status, amnesty or status as a covered veteran in accordance with applicable federal, state and local laws. PLA complies with applicable state and local laws governing nondiscrimination in employment in every location in which the company has facilities. This policy applies to all terms and conditions of employment, including hiring, placement, promotion, termination, layoff, recall, transfer, and leaves of absence, compensation and training.

PLA expressly prohibits any form of unlawful employee harassment based on race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, age, genetic information, disability, or veteran status. Any interference with the ability of PLA employees to perform their expected job duties is absolutely not tolerated. Furthermore, PLA may not exclude from participation in, deny the benefits of, or otherwise subject any employee or applicant to, discrimination in any program or activity for which the PLA Board is responsible or for which it receives financial assistance from the U.S. Department of Education. PLA values diversity and the benefits of different perspectives and backgrounds.

Ethics and Conflict of Interest

Employees must avoid any relationship or activity that is unethical, immoral, illegal, might negatively impact the school's image, or appear to impair their ability to make objective and fair decisions when performing their jobs. Employees must also refrain from making any decisions or engaging in any activities that result in personal or financial gain for the employee or a family member. Employees may not accept anything of value offered by another for the purpose of influencing judgment.

Staff members who have a financial interest in or derive a profit from a contract or purchase connected with an action by the school network must complete a Conflict of Interest Disclosure Statement to be approved by the Board. This is most commonly used if spouses or other members of a staff member's family enter into a contract or employment relationship with the school network.

Gifts presented to staff members by scholars, parents of scholars, or vendors is an undesirable practice because it tends to embarrass scholars with limited means and gives the appearance of currying favor. However, there are instances where students or their parents wish to express gratitude or kindness to an employee of the school network.

Therefore, staff members may accept or give gifts of nominal value from or to students, parents, or vendors. Nominal value shall not exceed $25.00. The COO may approve acts of generosity to or from individual staff members in unusual situations.

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), 20 U.S.C. §1232g, is a Federal privacy law administered by the Family Policy Compliance Office (FPCO or Office) in the U.S. Department of Education (Department or we). FERPA and its implementing regulations in 34 CFR part 99 protect the privacy of students' education records and afford parents and eligible students (i.e., students who are 18 years of age or older or attend an institution of postsecondary education) certain rights to inspect and review education records, to seek to amend these records, and to consent to the disclosure of personally identifiable information from education records.

PLA employees must maintain the privacy of the records and may not release any confidential educational records, as defined under FERPA, without the express consent of the student or parent. Educational records are all records that contain information directly related to a student and are maintained by an educational agency or institution, or by a party acting on its behalf. A record means any information recorded in any way, including handwriting, print, tape, film, microfilm, microfiche, and digital images. If an employee is approached regarding the release of any student information, please contact the Principal.

Family Medical Leave

In accordance with Federal law, PLA shall provide up to twelve (12) weeks of unpaid, job-protected Family Medical Leave (FMLA) in any twelve (12) month period to eligible staff members. Family Medical Leave may be used for:

- The birth of a child and/or the care of a newborn child within one (1) year of the child's birth;
- The placement of a child with the staff member by way of adoption or foster care and/or to care for the child within one (1) year of the child's arrival;
- The staff member is needed to care for a spouse, son, daughter, or parent if the individual has a serious health condition; or
- The staff member's own serious health condition prevents him/her from performing the functions of his/her position.

Military Family Leave Entitlements

Eligible employees whose spouse, son, daughter or parent is on covered active duty or call to covered active duty status may use their 12-week leave entitlement to address certain "qualifying exigencies." Qualifying exigencies may include attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.

The FMLA also includes a special leave entitlement that permits eligible employees to take up to 26 weeks of leave to care for a covered service member during a single 12- month period. This is a one-time benefit per service member. A covered service member is defined as:

- 1) a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation or therapy, is otherwise in outpatient status, or is otherwise on the temporary disability retired list, for a serious injury or illness; or

- 2) a veteran who was discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable at any time during the five-year period prior to the first date the eligible employee takes FML to care for the covered veteran, and who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy for a serious injury or illness. (Note, the FMLA definitions of "serious injury or illness" for current service members and veterans are distinct from the FMLA definition of serious health condition).

General Network FML Provisions

Employees are eligible for Family Medical Leave benefits after working 6 months.

For purposes of FML, a serious health condition is defined as:

- An illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves in-patient care, including any period of incapacity or any subsequent treatment in connection with such inpatient care;
- Continuing treatment by a healthcare provider, including:
- A period of incapacity of more than three (3) consecutive calendar days plus two
- visits to a health care provider within thirty (30) days (first visit within seven (7) days of incapacity);

- Any incapacity due to pregnancy or for prenatal care;
- Any period of incapacity or treatment for such incapacity due to a chronic serious health condition;
- A period of incapacity which is permanent or long-term due to a condition for which treatment may not be effective;
- Any period of absence to receive multiple treatments by a healthcare provider either for restorative surgery after an accident or other injury, or for a condition that would likely result in a period of incapacity of more than three (3) consecutive days in the absence of medical intervention or treatment; examples include: cancer (chemotherapy, radiation, etc.), severe arthritis (physical therapy), or kidney disease dialysis.

Conditions for which cosmetic treatment are administered are not “serious health conditions” unless complications develop. Ordinarily, unless complications arise, the common cold, the flu, ear aches, upset stomachs, minor ulcers, headaches other than diagnosed migraines, routine dental or orthodontia problems, periodontal disease, etc. are conditions that do not meet the definition of a “serious health condition” and therefore do not qualify for Family Medical Leave.

Intermittent FML

Staff members are permitted to take Family Medical Leave intermittently or on a reduced when medically necessary or when approved by the Director of Human Resources or Principal. Intermittent leave or reduced-leave schedule results in the reduction of the twelve (12) weeks (or twenty-six (26) weeks for Service Member Family Leave) only by the amount of leave actually taken. If the intermittent or reduced-leave schedule is foreseeable based on planned medical treatment, the Director of Human Resources or Principal may require the staff member to transfer temporarily to an available alternative position, which better accommodates recurring periods of leave. The alternative position shall have equivalent pay and benefits but not necessarily equivalent duties.

Notice of FML

Whenever the leave is necessitated by the serious health condition of the staff member or his/her immediate family member or the leave is taken pursuant to Service Member Family Leave, and is foreseeable based on planned medical treatment, the staff member shall provide PLA with a thirty- (30) days' notice. Employees must notify Human Resources of the need to take FML leave by e-mailing humanresources@phalenacademies.org. If there is insufficient time to provide such notice because of the need for treatment, the staff member shall provide such notice as early as practicable. When a staff member is taking leave because of a "qualifying exigency" and the leave is foreseeable, whether because the staff member's spouse, son, daughter, or parent is on active duty, or because of notification of an impending call or order to active duty in support of a contingency operation, the staff member shall provide such notice to the Director of Human Resources or Principal as is reasonable and practicable. When planning medical treatment or taking leave pursuant to Service Member Family Leave, the staff member must consult with the Director of Human Resources or Principal and make a reasonable effort to schedule the leave so as not to unduly disrupt the regular operation of the Network, subject to the approval of the healthcare provider.

Use Of PTO with FML

The PLA Board may require staff to substitute his/her earned or accrued paid vacation leave, personal leave or sick leave for unpaid FMLA leave or Service Member Family Leave. If the staff member has not earned or accrued adequate paid leave to encompass the entire period of FMLA leave or Service Member Family Leave, the additional weeks of leave shall be unpaid. Whenever a staff member uses paid leave in substitution for unpaid FMLA leave or Service Member Family Leave, such leave counts toward the twelve (12) week maximum leave or twenty- six (26) week maximum leave for Service Member Family Leave allowance provided by this Policy.

The Director of Human Resources or designee will notify the staff member when the Network intends to designate leave as FMLA-qualifying. In cases in which the Board employs both spouses, the total amount of FMLA leave is twelve (12) weeks for the couple, except when the leave is due to the serious health condition of either spouse or child.

Additionally, the aggregate number of work weeks of leave to which both the husband and wife may be entitled pursuant to this policy is limited to twenty-six (26) work weeks during the single twelve (12) month period provided for in the Service Member Family Leave provision if the leave is taken pursuant to Service Member Family Leave or a combination of general FMLA leave and Service Member Family Leave.

When FMLA leave or Service Member Family Leave is taken, the staff member must provide medical certification from the healthcare provider of the eligible staff member or his/her immediate family member. The staff member may either:

- Submit the medical certification to Human Resources or designee; or
- Direct the healthcare provider to transfer the medical certification directly to Human Resources or designee, which will generally require the staff member to furnish the healthcare provider with a HIPAA compliant authorization.

Staff members are not eligible for leave pursuant to this policy if they work elsewhere during leave pursuant to this policy.

In the event the staff member fails to provide medical certification, any leave taken by the employee is not FMLA leave or Service Member Family Leave. When the need for the FMLA leave is foreseeable and at least thirty- (30) days' notice has been provided, the staff member must provide the medical certification before the leave begins. When this is not possible, the employee must provide the requested certification to Human Resources or designee within fifteen (15) calendar days after the staff member requests FMLA leave unless it is not practicable under the circumstances to do so despite the staff member's diligent and good faith efforts.

The Board reserves the right to obtain, at its expense, the opinion of a second healthcare provider and, in the event of conflict, the opinion of a third healthcare provider whose decision shall be binding and final. The staff member may either:

- Submit the opinion of the second healthcare provider, and the opinion of the third healthcare provider if applicable, to the COO, Human Resources or designee; or
- Direct the second or third healthcare provider to transfer his/her opinion directly to Human Resources or designee, which will generally require the staff member to furnish the healthcare provider with a HIPAA compliant authorization.

In the event the staff member fails to provide the medical opinion of the second or third healthcare provider, if applicable, any leave taken by the staff member is not FMLA leave. A staff member seeking to take leave pursuant to any exigency must submit, in a timely manner to Human Resources, an appropriate certification as described by Federal regulations.

Upon return to work staff members must provide to the Human Resources or designee a statement from his/her healthcare provider that he/she is able to resume work. Upon return from any FMLA leave, the Network will restore the staff member to his/her former position or to a position with equivalent employment benefits, pay and conditions of employment. During FMLA leave, the Network shall maintain the staff member's current coverage under the group health insurance program on the same conditions, as coverage would have been provided if the staff member had been continuously working during the leave period. If the staff member was paying all or part of the premium payments prior to going on FMLA leave, the staff member must continue to pay his/her share during the leave.

The use of FMLA leave will not result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of the staff member's leave. If the staff member fails to return to work at the end of the leave for reasons other than the continuation, recurrence, or onset of a serious health condition of the staff member or of the staff member's immediate family member, or for circumstances beyond the control of the staff member, or for Service Member Family Leave, the staff member shall reimburse the Network for the health insurance premiums paid by the Network during the unpaid FMLA leave period. A staff member who fraudulently obtains FMLA leave is not protected by this policy's job restoration or maintenance of health benefits provision.

The following conduct is prohibited in relation to FMLA leave:

- Engaging in fraud, providing false or misleading information to Phalen Leadership Academies or a health care provider.
- Failure to return from leave.
- Failure to comply with the employee's obligations as set forth in this policy.

HIPAA Privacy and Security Compliance

PLA safeguards and protects the health information of its applicants and staff members in accordance with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA)

The unauthorized access, use, disclosure, alteration, deletion, or unauthorized transmission of protected health information in violation of this policy may subject the staff member or supervisor to disciplinary action up to and including termination.

PLA will annually send notice to all staff members of their rights under HIPAA. All new staff members will receive the notification upon hire. If a staff member feels their rights under this policy have been violated, he/she must immediately report it to Human Resources.

Performance Standards and Corrective Action

PLA expects employees to adhere to our policies and to perform their job duties in a professional, efficient and effective manner. To that end, Supervisors are expected to monitor the performance and behavior of employees. If a Supervisor identifies weaknesses in an employee's performance, or unacceptable conduct by the employee, the Supervisor must provide the employee with the opportunity to correct his/her performance or inappropriate conduct.

In the event that an employee fails to show improvement in job performance or continues to violate the school's policies and/or continues to engage in unacceptable behavior, the Supervisor may begin the corrective action process with the employee.

The following is a list of behaviors that may result in disciplinary corrective action or a recommendation for discharge:

- Unsatisfactory quality or quantity of work; incompetence
- Repeated unexcused absences or tardiness
- Failing to follow instructions or PLA policies, procedures and/or guidelines.

- Insubordination or insubordinate acts
- Failing to demonstrate integrity
- Failing to follow established safety regulations
- Falsifying an employment application or any other company records or documents
- Failing to record working time accurately or recording a co-worker's time (time abuse)
 - Using vulgar, profane or obscene language, including any communication or action that violates our policy against harassment and other unlawful forms of discrimination
- Disorderly conduct, fighting, or other acts of violence or horseplay
- Misusing, destroying, or stealing company property or another person's property
- Possessing, entering with, or using weapons on the PLA property or at activities associated with PLA. Weapons include any object that, in the manner in which it is used, intended to be used, or represented is capable of inflicting serious bodily harm or property damage.
 - Possessing, selling, using, or reporting to work with alcohol, controlled substances, or illegal drugs present in the employee's system, on PLA property, or on working time
- Disclosing or using confidential or proprietary information without authorization
- Violating PLA policies or handbook guidelines, for example: conflict of interest policy, technology acceptable use policy, staff bullying guidelines, etc.
 - Being convicted of a crime that indicates unfitness for the job or presents a threat to PLA or its employees in any way.

Corrective Action

PLA will use the following corrective action measures if an employee is not able, or willing to make the necessary changes to meet PLA's expectations.

Step 1. Supervisor must notify employee that his or her performance is unacceptable (this conversation will function as a verbal warning).

Step 2. Supervisor must schedule a Professional Development Meeting ("PD Meeting"), which is a one-on-one meeting with the Employee to discuss his or her performance or the infraction. During the PD Meeting, Supervisor must provide actionable feedback and compliance dates for improvement to the employee.

Step 3. Supervisor must follow-up with the staff member within a reasonable time. If poor performance or behavioral issues remain, the Supervisor must proceed to Corrective Action.

Step 4. Supervisor may schedule a second PD Meeting with the employee or issue a written warning. If the Supervisor holds a second PD Meeting, he or she must reiterate his or her concerns and document those concerns in writing. If the Supervisor issues a written warning, the Supervisor should give the employee a copy of the warning. Copies of all corrective action documents should be placed in the employee's personnel file.

Step 5. If no improvement is observed, Supervisor must contact Principal and Human Resources to discuss Suspension and/or Termination of employee.

Prohibition of Tobacco Products

To further promote a healthy, drug-free work environment, PLA prohibits the use of tobacco products in all buildings, vehicles, and property belonging to the school network during school hours, and during non-school hours if at a school related function.

Title IX

Policy against sex discrimination

In accordance with applicable law, including Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and the Indiana Civil Rights Law, it is the policy of PLA that no scholar will be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination in any education program or activity on the basis of sex. A scholar may not, on the basis of sex, be limited in the enjoyment of any right, privilege, advantage, or opportunity, including courses, extracurricular activities, benefits, and facilities.

Title IX Coordinator

PLA has designated a Title IX Coordinator, who has responsibility for PLA's compliance with Title IX, including directing the investigation of complaints and reports of sex discrimination and harassment and assuring that prompt and effective corrective action is taken. The PLA Title IX Coordinator is:

Name: Helen Dixon

Email Address: hdixon@phalenacademies.org

Complaint Procedure Making a Complaint

Parents and scholars are encouraged promptly to submit a complaint or provide information about suspected sex discrimination or harassment so that PLA can take appropriate action to resolve the situation. A parent or scholar should make the complaint or report orally or in writing to the building administrator, school counselor, school social worker, or directly to the Title IX Coordinator. A report should be made as soon as possible after the complained-of incident, preferably within ten days after the parent has been notified by a scholar of sex discrimination or harassment so that PLA can address the matter while memories are fresh and before a situation becomes more severe.

However, PLA will continue to accept complaints after the ten-day filing period.

Every employee of PLA is required immediately to report in writing to the Title IX Coordinator suspected sex discrimination or harassment of a scholar whether it is based on the employee's witnessing such conduct or on information from the scholar, the scholar's parent, or a third party.

Investigation and Corrective Action

The Title IX Coordinator will promptly investigate, or direct the investigation of, complaints and reports of sex discrimination or harassment. The investigation will be completed in a timely manner, the time depending on the nature and complexity of the issues but generally taking no more than 30 days. The Title IX Coordinator will assist the building principal in determining whether to take interim measures during the investigation and whether PLA is required to report the incident that is the subject of the complaint to Child Protective Services.

At the conclusion of the investigation, the Title IX Coordinator will report the result to the Principal, including, where appropriate, making a recommendation for reasonable, timely, age-appropriate, and effective correction action. The Principal may impose discipline up to and including a recommendation for employee termination or scholar expulsion. The Title IX Coordinator will advise the Complainant and the person accused of misconduct, in writing, whether or not the allegations were substantiated.

Except to the extent an employee or scholar has a statutory right to challenge the Principal's recommendation for expulsion or termination or an employee has a collectively bargained right to challenge the imposition of discipline, the decision of the Principal is final.

This policy should be read in conjunction with PLA's general anti-harassment policy and procedures for reporting abuse and neglect to Child Protective Services.

Workers Compensation

PLA provides worker's compensation benefits to any employee who is injured or incurs an occupational disease or death, arising out of and in the course of their employment. Any employee who has sustained an injury while working or while on company property must report the incident to his or her supervisor immediately (or within 24 hours if immediate notification is not possible). Any employee, who is aware of any injuries resulting from an exposure to hazardous substances, must report the exposure as soon as he or she becomes aware of the exposure but no later than 24 hours after becoming aware of the exposure.

The Supervisor/Designee must notify Human Resources as soon as he/she is notified of the claim. Human Resources will send the Principal/Designee a First Report of Injury Form to complete. The form must be completed and returned to Human Resources the same day. Human Resources will submit the claim to the Workers Compensation provider. Employees must provide accurate and honest statements.

Falsification of any information may result in a denial of the claim and/or discipline up to and including dismissal.

The Workers Compensation provider may require the employee to go to a pre-approved list of medical providers for treatment. If required, the employee must select a medical provider from the list of approved medical providers.

The Employee must transport him or herself to the medical provider, unless unable to do so. If an emergency, the Principal or Designee must call an ambulance to transport the employee. The Employee must submit to the medical evaluation and recommended treatment plan of the medical provider.

All medical documentation required to substantiate the claim must be submitted to humanresources@phalenacademies.org. If applicable, the employee must provide regular updates for on-going treatment. Employees may obtain a second medical opinion at their own expense.

Standardized guidelines have been developed to ensure all employees meet (or exceed) high expectations required to positively represent the site and educational profession. Phalen Leadership Academies Paid Time Off Policy

PLA recognizes that employees need time away from the office to help balance their lives, to address personal concerns, to cover absences due to illness and to provide time off to care for dependents. To that end, PLA has established a Compensatory Time Off (PTO) policy that provides employees with the flexibility to use time off, while recognizing the employee's responsibility to manage his/her paid time off. This policy does not apply to holidays, jury duty or bereavement leaves.

Process

Employees in good standing receive 10 hours of PTO on the first of each month from September to April, not to exceed 80 in a single year. PLA tracks absences for illness, work related illness/injury, or the attendance of school related activities for legal compliance reasons. Employees may not carry over unused PTO time from year to year. This encourages employees to use their PTO and allows the company to manage its financial obligations responsibly. Once an employee has exhausted his/her PTO balance for the year, the employee will not accumulate additional PTO. PTO may be taken in increments of as low as one hour. However, PTO may not be used for missed time because an employee reports late to work, except during inclement weather.

- Management Of PTO

You are responsible for managing your PTO balance. It is important that you plan ahead for how you will use it. This means developing a plan for taking your vacations, as well as doctor's appointments and personal business. It also means holding some time in "reserve" for the unexpected, such as emergencies and illnesses.

- Use and Scheduling of PTO

Generally, PTO will be approved on a first come first serve basis. Depending on the size of the school, not more than 3 staff members will be approved for the same PTO leave. PTO will also be denied during critical blackout periods, such as before testing periods. Employees must do the following to request PTO.

- Notice

When possible, employees must provide reasonable advance notice to his/her supervisor. An email will suffice. There may be occasions, such as sudden illness, when an employee cannot notify his/her supervisor in advance. In those situations, the employee must inform his/her supervisor of the circumstances as soon as possible.

- PTO Submission

You must submit your request for PTO through the network's system, UltiPro.

· Obtain Supervisor Approval

Employees must obtain supervisory approval prior to using PTO. Supervisors must consider the following when determining whether to approve a leave request:

1. Available remaining staff in the building to meet operational needs
2. Whether the employee complied with PTO request procedures,
3. Whether the employee has enough time in his/her PTO balance to cover the absence.

· Supervisor Response

Employees should not assume that the PTO request has been approved, if he/she has not received a response from the supervisor or via UltiPro. If an employee has not received an answer within a reasonable time frame (1 week), the employee should send a reminder email to the supervisor and indicate the original date of the request.

Policy Non-compliance

If the supervisor denies the employee's request for PTO and the employee fails to report to work, the employee's absence from work will be considered insubordination and subject the employee to discipline up to and including dismissal.

Paid Time Off at Termination

PTO is a terminal benefit, not an accrued benefit at PLA. Terminating employees are not paid for unused PTO.

Note: An emergency or unexpected work requirement might cause you to forego scheduled Paid Time Off already approved by your supervisor. When such an event occurs, please contact your supervisor immediately.

Phalen Leadership Academy Travel Policy

Purpose

To establish guidelines for employee travel requests and reimbursement of school travel expenditures.

Scope

This policy applies to all PLA employees and covers travel requests and expenditures inside and outside the geographical limits of the City of Indianapolis.

Procedures

Step 1. Employees must submit a request for travel and reimbursement to the Principal. The request must specify the reason for the travel. The employee must attach any brochures or other materials describing the event to the request.

The request should also include a breakdown of the costs and any requests for projected reimbursement.

Step 2. The Principal must approve or deny the travel request. A denial of a travel request is not appealable. In emergency situations where an employee cannot obtain prior approval of the Principal, justification for the travel must be included in the text of the travel request and submitted to the Director of Training.

Step 3. If the Principal approves the request, the Principal must forward the request to the Director of Finance and the Director of Training.

Step 4. The Chief Operating Officer or the Chief Executive Officer will approve or deny the request in writing and submit the decision to the Principal. The Principal will convey the decision to the employee.

Travel Expenditures

PLA will approve travel and pay travel expenditures necessary and related to an employee's current duties, or within the scope of the employee's duties.

For purposes of this policy, "travel expenditures," means the costs for transportation, meals, lodging, registration, conference fees directly related to participation in the event, and any other costs associated with the travel.

PLA will pay travel expenditures for employee participation in the following events:

- a. Training and seminars (This includes formal residential or non-residential training functions conducted at a hotel, motel, convention center, residential facility, or at any educational institution or facility).
- b. Conventions and conferences (This includes programs sponsored by professional associations on a regular basis, which address subjects of particular interest to a school district or are convened to conduct association business. The primary purpose of employee attendance at conference and/or convention is the development of new skills and knowledge or the reinforcement of those skills and knowledge in a particular field related to school operations.).
- c. School sponsored events (This includes school business meetings, conferences, conventions, receptions, or special meetings where the school plans, develops, implements, and coordinates the event and is the event's primary financial backer).

- d. Student events (This includes employees who accompany students to student sports team events, school competitions and student learning events. This is limited to a reasonable and necessary number of employees needed for the event.)
- e. Department of Education sponsored or association sponsored events (This includes regularly scheduled in-State professional development activities.)
- f. School Retreats (This includes meetings with school district employees and school Board members, at which organizational goals and objectives are discussed.)
- g. Safety Training
- h. Professional Development (This includes out of state professional development activities needed to maintain a direct work related professional certification and/or license, provided such training is not available in the city or surrounding areas.)
- i. Grants (This includes travel required by a grantor to maintain compliance with the grant agreement).
- j. Emergencies (This includes travel necessitated by an emergency situation such as a major fire or natural disaster).

Travel Approval and Reimbursement

- All travel requests and reimbursement costs are conditioned upon the availability of funds.
- All travel requests must be educationally necessary and fiscally prudent.
- Employee costs or reimbursement for travel within the city will be limited to the applicable public transportation fees, or a pre-approved mileage reimbursement rate adopted by PLA.
- The reimbursement costs will not include meals, entertainment, and any other non-business related travel expenses.

Volunteer Background Check Policy

PLA recognizes that volunteers and community partners play an integral role in the success of the school. PLA encourages all parents, guardians, neighbors and partners to become an active part of the success of the school by volunteering their time and talents to the school.

Scope

This policy applies to any to any individual who volunteers at PLA, any PLA affiliated function or event, or any field trip. Any individual who wishes to volunteer at PLA must submit to a criminal background check. Pursuant to new requirements of the Indiana Charter School Board, all volunteer applicants must also consent to an expanded criminal history check. Failure to provide accurate information on the application may result in a denial of the application.

Criminal History Checks

A criminal history check can include a search of county records for every state that the applicant has lived, a search of the national criminal search database (FBI), and a search of the sex offender registry for all 50 states or a check of the national sex offender registry. PLA will run criminal history checks on a yearly basis.

Procedure

1. All volunteer applicants must complete an application prior to beginning volunteer work for PLA. Any volunteer wishing to attend a field trip must complete the criminal history check.
2. PLA staff will conduct the criminal background check. After a thorough review, applications will be approved or denied by PLA. If the history contains questionable information or shows cause for possible concern, PLA staff will contact the applicant to obtain additional information. If an applicant wishes to explain or provide more detail regarding negative information on a criminal history report, he or she should contact the Principal.

3. Felony or misdemeanor convictions will not automatically disqualify a person from volunteering at PLA, except for individuals convicted of certain offenses set forth in IC 20-26-5-11. Individuals wishing to view the list may request a copy of the list from the Front Office Administrator.

4. Convictions for offenses not on the list will be reviewed and considered on an individual basis. Some factors considered in the review process include: type of offense, date of offense and/or conviction, offenses characterized by violence, current status of offense (i.e. parole, probation, dismissal or discharge).

5. The decision to deny an individual the opportunity to volunteer is appealable. The individual must contact legal counsel at mreeves@phalenacademies.org to file an appeal.

Note: Any information obtained by PLA from any type of criminal history check is confidential and shall not be released or disseminated.

Volunteer Background Check Authorization and Release Form - PLEASE READ CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING

I understand that the George and Veronica Phalen Leadership Academy (PLA) runs a criminal history check on all school volunteers. I understand that I am required to submit to the criminal history check as a condition for consideration for volunteer services. The expanded criminal history check is done on a yearly basis.

I certify that the information submitted in support of my volunteer request is true, complete, and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I understand that falsification of information submitted as part of my request to provide volunteer services will be cause for disqualification. If accepted as a Volunteer, I hereby consent, understand, and agree to abide by the policies, rules and regulations of the PLA Board, and to comply with and abide by such other rules, regulations, and directions of the Principal, Administrator, or other responsible PLA employee.

I understand that PLA is not responsible for any injury to my property or my person while I am acting as a Volunteer. Furthermore, I hereby waive, release, covenant not to sue, and otherwise hold PLA, its officers and employees harmless from and against any and all claims or liabilities of any nature whatsoever that might arise as a result of my work as a Volunteer for PLA.

PLA Records Access Policy

Policy

As a school, PLA creates and maintains many files and records that are public in nature. Public files and records are subject to inspection and copying by scholars, their parents/guardians and members of the public, with certain exceptions. However, many school records are confidential in nature and are excepted from disclosure by Indiana's Access To Public Records Act ("APRA") and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act ("FERPA"). This policy provides guidance and a centralized process for dealing with requests for access to records and disclosure of those records.

Key Definitions

Directory information is defined as information contained in the education records of a scholar that would not generally be considered harmful or an invasion of privacy if disclosed. Directory information could include information such as the scholar's name, address, e-mail address, telephone listing, photograph, date and place of birth, major field of study, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, dates of attendance, degrees and awards received, the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended, grade level or year (such as freshman or junior), and enrollment status (undergraduate or graduate; full-time or part-time).

Education Records are those records that contain information directly related to a scholar and which are maintained by an educational agency or institution or by a party acting for the agency or institution.

Inspect is defined to include the right to do the following:

1. Manually transcribe and make notes, abstracts, or memoranda.

2. In the case of tape recordings or other aural public records, to listen and manually transcribe or duplicate, or make notes, abstracts, or other memoranda from them.
3. In the case of public records available a) by enhanced access or b) to a governmental entity to examine and copy the public records by use of an electronic device.
4. In the case of electronically stored data, to manually transcribe and make notes, abstracts, or memoranda or to duplicate the data onto a disk, tape, drum, or any other medium of electronic storage.

Public Record is broadly defined as any writing, paper, report, study, map, photograph, book, card, tape recording, or other material that is created, received, retained, maintained, or filed by or with a public agency and that is generated on paper, paper substitutes, photographic media, chemically-based media, magnetic or machine readable media, or any other material, regardless of form or characteristics.

Procedures

Scholar/Parent Requests (Typically FERPA)

1. FERPA grants parents and scholars access to the scholars' educational records. PLA must provide the scholar/parent with an opportunity to inspect and review the education records within 45 days following its receipt of a request. PLA must provide the scholar with copies of the education records, if PLA is unable to provide the scholar with an opportunity to inspect or review the education records.
2. Requests from scholars or their parents must be submitted to the Principal or Designee.
3. Principal/Designee should review the request to determine if the school will provide access or copies of the records to the scholar and/or parents.
4. Principal/Designee should contact legal prior to granting access or releasing educational records, if the Principal/Designee has concerns regarding the release of records.
6. PLA may disclose directory information without obtaining prior consent, if PLA has given public notice of the types of information it has designated as directory information, and the scholar and/or parent has indicated that he/she does not want any of the information designated as directory information released.

Note: PLA is not required to provide information that is not maintained or to create education records in response to an eligible scholar's request. Specifically, PLA is not required to provide an eligible scholar with updates on his or her progress in a course (including grade reports) or in school unless such information already exists in the form of an education record.

Public Requests (Typically APRA)

A request for access to public records may be made in person, by mail or facsimile. The requestor does not have to state a reason for requesting the records.

Mail/Facsimile

- PLA must prepare a response to the requesting party within seven calendar days following the day on which the request was received.
- If it is not reasonably possible to research and produce the requested documents within seven calendar days, the response will notify the requestor that a review is in process.
- In those circumstances, the documents will be produced as soon as is reasonably possible.

In-person

- For requests made by someone who is physically present at the school, PLA must prepare a response to the requesting party within 24 hours of the delivery of the request.
- In such circumstances, intervening weekends and holidays are not included in computing the 24-hour time period.

1. All public records requests should be submitted to the Principal/Designee.
2. The Principal/Designee should notify legal for guidance regarding the school's response to the request.
3. Legal, after consultation with the Director of Human Resources will determine whether to grant access to the records, release the records, or to deny access to the records.
4. If the decision is to grant access, the Principal/Designee must provide a room or space where the records may be inspected and copied; or, alternatively, provide copies of the requested records, and the cost of the copies.

5. If a denial, legal will prepare the response. For those responses denying access (either in whole or in part) to the records specified in the request, the response shall specify the specific exception(s) which form(s) the basis of the denial.
6. If PLA is unable to provide the records due to the unavailability of the records (e.g. school can't identify records due to lack of specificity of request, records destroyed pursuant to retention schedule, records don't exist), legal will inform the requestor that PLA does not possess the record or that the records could not be found after diligent search.

The Request For Records

Requests for records must identify with reasonable particularity the records sought. Oral requests for records must be reduced to writing. The recipient of the oral request must complete a records request form, detailing the records sought. Copies of the records request form may be obtained from the front office or off the school's website. PLA will not create or provide lists of names and addresses unless it is required to publish such lists and disseminate them pursuant to statute.

Fees

PLA may charge fees for copies of records pursuant to Indiana law. Fees for copies are as follows:

- 1) Pages that are not larger than 8 1/2" x 14" shall be $.10 per page.
- 2) Pages that are larger than 8 1/2" x 14" shall be the actual cost of copying.
- 3) Existing computer printouts shall be the actual cost.
- 4) Initial printout from computer file shall be the actual cost of creating.
- 5) Any other record shall be the actual cost of copying.

Fees must be paid before any record is duplicated and shall be paid by cash or money order payable to PLA. (PLA can waive the fees.)

Denials

APRA exempts certain records from public disclosure (unless access to the records is specifically required by a state or federal statute or is ordered by a court under the rules of discovery) (See IC 5-14-3-4).

Generally, FERPA bars PLA from disclosing personally identifiable information from an eligible scholar's education records to a third party unless the eligible scholar or the parent has provided written consent. However, there are a number of exceptions to FERPA's prohibition against non-consensual disclosure of personally identifiable information from education records. Under these exceptions, schools are permitted to disclose personally identifiable information from education records without consent, though they are not required to do so. (See PLA FERPA policy for specific exceptions)

Note: Subpoenas-parties may seek records they believe to be relevant to their lawsuit or claim through the issuance of subpoenas. Any subpoena received by school personnel must be submitted to legal.
